About Mike Lee: Mike is an across the board conservative. As a practicing attorney from Alpine, Utah, Mike has spent his career helping individuals and organizations get overreaching government regulations and control out of their lives and businesses. He is a lifetime student of the Constitution, and graduated from the Brigham Young University Law School. Mike served as a law clerk to Judge Dee Benson of the U.S. District Court for the District of Utah and later spent time as General Counsel to Governor Jon Huntsman. Twice Mike served as a law clerk to current Supreme Court Justice Samuel Alito. He first clerked for the solidly conservative Justice at the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit, then was asked to return as a clerk during Justice Alito's important first year on the bench of the U.S. Supreme Court. Mike has also held positions in private practice, including time as a partner with the Washington, D.C.-based law firm of Howrey LLP. His understanding of the Constitution and law have made him a valuable resource for individuals and organizations throughout the country. Mike and his wife Sharon currently reside in Alpine with their three children.
